

FINANCE/MANAGEMENT

MANAGEMENT, FINANCE and INVESTMENTS TRACK For those who like research, numbers and decision-making. You need an analytical mind and you must be a good game player.	Wall Street I  1/2 cr. Grades 9 – 12 #5040	Wall Street II  1/2 cr. Grades 10 – 12 #5060	Business Law  1 cr. Grades 10 – 12 #5091 (6 crs. from SUNY Farmingdale)	Sports Management  1/2 cr. Grades 10—12 #5165. (3 crs. from LIU Southampton)
---	--	--	---	---

Education Level	Finance Apprentices	Typical Entry-Level Salaries
High School	Office assistant, bank clerk, data entry clerk, law clerk, assistant.	$7—$8 an hour; $14—$16,000.
2 yr. A.A.S. Degree	Bank teller, finance clerk, administrative assistant, paralegal, small business owner.	$9—$12 an hour; $18—$24,000.
4 yr. B.S. Degree	Account Executive, bank officers, stock broker, bank officer, financial analyst, financial planner, foreign exchange trader, insurance agent/broker, investment banker, real estate agent/broker, venture capitalist/investor, human resource manager.	$13—$25 an hour; $26—$50,000.

Apprentice Synonyms:

Amateur, beginner, boot, freshman, greenhorn, newcomer, newbie, novice, pupil, rookie, starter, student.

What Do Apprentices' Study in College?

- Business Administration: Finance or Management
- Economics
- E-Commerce/Entrepreneurship
- International Business
- Accounting
- Human Resource Management
- Law
- Insurance, Real Estate, Banking
- Sports Management
- Marketing
- Paralegal Studies
- Psychology
- Hospitality/Hotel Management
- Mathematics

These courses are good for non-business majors who wish to study: Forensics, engineering, science, health, communications, and government.